VEHICLE CRASH INTO A BUILDING

Anderson Township, June 22, 2013 – Chief Deputy Mark A. Schoonover, Hamilton County Sheriff's Office, reports a single vehicle crash into a building at 8394 Beechmont Ave in Anderson Township on Saturday June 22, 2013 at 7:34 AM.

A 1998 Lincoln Navigator operated by Brandon Anderson, age 28, of Cincinnati, Ohio was traveling westbound on S.R. 125 (Beechmont Avenue) in the 8400 block. Mr. Anderson was driving his vehicle over the posted speed limit when a Deputy passed him traveling the opposite direction. When the Deputy turned around to initiate a traffic stop, the vehicle turned right on Eight Mile Rd. and then another immediate right into the parking lot of McSwain Carpets, 8394 Beechmont Avenue. Mr. Anderson jumped from the vehicle while it was still moving. The Lincoln then struck the building causing significant damage. Mr. Anderson fled the scene on foot. Deputies searched the area and did not locate Mr. Anderson. McSwain Carpets was not occupied at the time of this incident. The Anderson Township Fire Department and Building inspector responded to the scene to assess the structural integrity of the building.

Warrants will be filed for Mr. Anderson for Speeding (4511.21), Driving under multiple suspensions (4510.11) and Leaving the scene of a crash (4549.021). Mr. Anderson is also wanted on five other traffic capiases.
