BREAKING AND ENTERING

Whitewater Township, January 07, 2014 – Chief Deputy Mark A. Schoonover, Hamilton County Sheriff's Office, reports a Breaking and Entering at the Marathon gas station located in the 9900 Block of Harrison Avenue, Whitewater Township. Video surveillance showed that an unknown male suspect made entry into the business after it closed without forcing entry. The suspect then removed an undetermined amount of U.S. Currency and a large number of cigarettes. Investigation identified the male suspect as Kevin Lockwood, twenty-six years of age of Harrison, Ohio. Investigation further revealed that Lockwood received a duplicate key to the business from a former employee identified as Brittany Long, twenty years of age, also of Harrison, Ohio. Both suspects were arrested and charged with Breaking and Entering.
