Fighting Crime One "Click" at a Time

Hamilton County, January 31, 2014 – Hamilton County Sheriff Jim Neil will address the media on Friday, January 31st at 10:30 A.M. at the Sheriff's Office (1000 Sycamore St., Room 110, Cincinnati, OH 45202) to introduce his new website, Facebook page, Twitter, and blogs. He will discuss the office's ability to use social media as a law enforcement tool, with our new "Text a Tip" and other ways the public can assist our crime fighting effort.

"No longer is this office stuck in the dark ages of technology," said Sheriff Neil. "We are changing with the times, and using every tool available to fight crime and serve the public."

The revamped website, www.hcso.org has exciting new tools and resources to report crimes. The office started an official Facebook and Twitter page, which is updated with information regularly to keep the public better informed.

Sheriff Neil added, "We used to just think of fighting crime with a firearm or handcuffs. Today we fight crimes with a text, email, and tweet!"
