BARRICADED SUBJECT WITH A GUN

Anderson Township, June 17, 2015 – Hamilton County Sheriff Jim Neil reports that Sheriff's units responded to the 900 Block of Stream Ridge Lane at approximately 12:30 AM for the report of a man with a gun. Upon arrival, units learned that David Sohngen, fifty-eight of Anderson Township was inside of his residence armed with multiple firearms. Officers learned that several shots had been fired inside the residence prior to their arrival, and multiple gun shots were heard inside the residence on several occasions as officers contained the residence. Numerous attempts were made to contact Mr. Sohngen without success. The Sheriff's Special Response Team was called to the scene and found Mr. Sohngen inside the residence with multiple self-inflicted gun shot wounds to the chest and abdomen. Mr. Sohngen was transported to UC Hospital and is currently in stable condition.

It is believed that at no time did Mr. Sohngen fire at anything outside of his residence and no one else was injured. Investigation continues by the Sheriff's Criminal Investigation Section.

Sgt B. Sovern, District 5
