INMATE ATTEMPTED ESCAPE

Hamilton County Justice Center, January 7, 2019 – Hamilton County Sheriff Jim Neil reports an attempted escape of an inmate at the Reading Road Correctional Treatment Facility.

On January 3, 2018 at approximately 12:45 pm, an alarm sounded from the north stairwell on the 3rd floor of the Reading Road Facility, located at 1617 Reading Road. Inmate Robert Suddarth, male/26, was observed on camera exiting the stairwell on the ground floor and entering the recreation yard. Fencing prevented inmate Suddarth from being able to escape from the recreation yard. Deputies responded and apprehended Inmate Suddarth. Inmate Suddarth was returned to the Hamilton County Justice Center.

Robert Suddarth was arrested on November 25, 2018 for aggravated menacing and domestic violence threats. He had been lodged at the Reading Road Facility since December 26, 2018.

On January 07, 2019, Inmate Robert Suddarth was charged with Escape. He is currently in custody at the Hamilton County Justice Center.
