MEDIA RELEASE

Beacon Street

Anderson Township, February 25, 2019– Hamilton County Sheriff Jim Neil reports the arrests of several people in regards to the stabbing on Beacon Street.

On February 25, 2019 at approximately 4:23 AM, Deputies were dispatched to the report of two people stabbed with shots fired in the 1300 block of Beacon Street. Upon arrival, Deputies found two people with stab wounds that were transported to local hospitals for treatment. These two individuals, Taylor Deitsch (f/19) and John Taylor Jr (m/30) reported that an altercation took place inside of 1339 Beacon Street where they were both stabbed and shot at as they fled the residence. Deputies and Cincinnati Police Officers secured the home, attempting to order the remaining occupants out. While securing this residence, Jeremy Mason came out peacefully and surrendered to Deputies. The Hamilton County Police Association SWAT team was requested to respond and assist with tactical entry as two additional suspects were unaccounted for who were reportedly armed with handguns. Search warrants were executed at the residence leading to the arrest of Noel Hicks (f/41) who was found hiding inside the home.

Investigation revealed that Taylor Deitsch and John Taylor made up the story of being stabbed by an individual after a property dispute. It was learned that John Taylor stabbed his girlfriend Taylor Deitsch after a drug fueled domestic dispute. The story was concocted to attempt to keep John Taylor from being arrested. No evidence of any firearms being discharged was found at the scene and witnesses
