VEHICLE PURSUIT IN SILVERTON

Village of Silverton, July 23, 2019 – Hamilton County Sheriff Jim Neil reports a brief vehicle pursuit that began in Silverton at 2345 hours and ended with an auto crash in the City of Cincinnati.

A 2008 Dodge Charger, which was operated by Jamin Posey, male, 32 years of age, was witnessed making a traffic infraction by a deputy near Montgomery Road and Hampton Drive. When the deputy attempted to initiate a traffic stop at Coleridge Avenue, Mr. Posey began to operate erratically on side streets in an attempt to evade the deputy. The deputy disengaged after losing sight of the suspect vehicle near Montgomery Road and Ridge Avenue; the vehicle was located shortly thereafter where it had collided into a utility pole near 5800 Montgomery Road.

Mr. Posey was taken into custody without incident and transported to University Hospital for treatment of non-life threatening injuries. Charges are pending at this time. Alcohol and speed are believed to be factors in the crash.
