FATAL AUTO ACCIDENT-WHTEWATER TOWNSHIP

Whitewater Township, June 12, 2020 – Hamilton County Sheriff Jim Neil reports a two car fatal auto accident which occurred at approximately 9:10 a.m. at the 9500 block of Harrison Avenue in Whitewater Township. A 2014 Focus operated by Frederick J. Strothman, 66yoa, was traveling eastbound on Harrison Avenue exiting a right bound curve. As Mr. Strothman's vehicle exited the curve, he lost control, which caused his vehicle to completely travel left of center. This action caused a head-on collision with a 2007 GMC Yukon XL, which was traveling the opposite direction on Harrison Avenue. The 2007 GMC Yukon XL was being operated by Jason A. Bosch, 43yoa. During the collision both vehicles were redirected off the roadway and overturned. Mr. Strothman was not utilizing any safety restraints and sustained fatal injuries from the collision. Mr. Bosch was utilizing his safety restraints and sustained non-life threatening injuries from the collision. Mr. Bosch was transported to University of Cincinnati Medical Center. The crash remains under investigation by the Hamilton County Sheriff's Traffic Safety Unit.
