MEDIA RELEASE

HAMILTON COUNTY SHERIFF'S OFFICE MANDATORY MASK PROTOCOL

Cincinnati, Ohio, July 08, 2020 – On July 7, 2020, Governor Mike DeWine issued a mandate for anyone in Hamilton County to wear a mask or face covering while Hamilton County remains in a Level 3 (Red) status. The mandate will take effect today at 6:00 p.m. and will be reevaluated weekly. Governor DeWine further indicated this mandate will be enforced by state and local officials.

The Hamilton County Sheriff's Office supports the initiative to wear a mask or face covering to help prevent the further spread of the Coronavirus (COVID-19). Because is a health related order, the Hamilton County Sheriff's Office will not enforce this mandate. Citizens should not call a Sheriff's District, Communications Center (513-825-2280) or (9-1-1) for potential violations of this health related mandate. Instead, citizens may file complaints with the Hamilton County Public Health on their website at www.hcph.org.
