Robbery

Anderson Township, February 1st, 2021 – Hamilton County Sheriff

Charmaine McGuffey reports a robbery that occurred at the Kroger 7580 Beechmont Avenue.

Deputies were dispatched for a robbery that occurred at the Kroger. A suspect later identified as Dylon Gentry, male 28, selected various amounts of merchandise totaling an approximate amount of $1500 and proceeded past all points of sale without paying. Dylon Gentry was confronted by a Kroger employee. Dylon Gentry struck the employee in the face with a closed fist and abandoned the stolen property at the scene. No injuries to the employee were reported. Dylon Gentry fled the store and entered a silver 2012 Ford Focus. Deputies arrived on scene as the vehicle was pulling away and were able to stop it. Dylon Gentry was arrested for the robbery without further incident and transported to the Hamilton County Justice Center.
